

CURRICULUM VITAE HANS-MICHAEL FÖLDEAK

Title                      Diplom Ingenieur Architekt (University of Applied Sciences Munich)
                                 Master of Science in Architecture Studies (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)
Date of birth              05 04 1975
Nationality                German

Professional activities

2014                      földeak & bennaceur conseil conception: founding of f&b cc together with Malia Bennaceur in 2017 change of name to fbcc architecture

2011 – 2014              LIN architects Berlin | Paris: project manager for four new subway stations in the greater Paris area

2009 – 2010              cooperation with Hoehler & Partner on the new mosque of Algiers, KSP Jürgen Engel architects

2008 – 2010              ENZO with Jacques Cadilhac: competitions, refurbishments, artist's constructive support

2003 – 2007              LIN architects Berlin | Paris: project manager for the transformation of two chambers in the former submarine base of Saint Nazaire France to a cultural center

Theoretic and academic projects

2012                      Exposition "die Rote Banane" (Red Banana); documentation of the region of the former Iron Curtain on the Czech, Austrian and German border; on study since 2008.

2011                      "Grenzorte" (border places) – architectural documentation project with students in the former monastery of Bohosudov (CZ), together with the University of Applied Sciences Munich (HM) and the Technical University of Prague (CVUT)

2002                      "Carbon fiber tower": Project at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (Prof. Testa) with ARUP
                                 New York on the architectural potential of carbon fiber as construction material

Education

2001 – 2003              Master of Science in Architecture at M.I.T., Cambridge MA

1995 – 2000              Architectural Studies at University of Applied Sciences, Munich (Diplom-Ingenieur Architekt FH)

Scholarships and rewards

2011                      Price for young artists and architects, SL, Munich

2008                      Scholarship "Grenzgänger", Foundation Robert Bosch, Stuttgart, for the project of the Red Banana

2000                      Scholarship for studies at M.I.T. by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)